from time to time," he confessed. "But it never lasts. In the end a bigger bunch gets itself together and gets rid of them. It comes to the same thing--they end up getting shot anyhow." "Then you lose out to the system. It's like playing against Driscoll--the system makes it's own aces." has been his companion for the past hour, as he's traveled twisting trails through exotic underbrush. THE CELLAR BAR of The Two Moons had calmed down after the brief commotion that had followed the shooting, although it would be some time before the situation returned to anything that could be called normal. Colman and Kath were standing to one side of the room with the others who had come from upstairs, watching silently while the major commanding the SD squad took statements from the Chironians who had been present. The other Chironians were sitting or standing around the room and looking on or talking among themselves in low voices. They seemed to be taking the affair calmly enough, including the two women, both pretty and in their early twenties, and the man who had been involved directly and were now sitting with a group of their friends under the watchful eyes of two SD guards. The body of Corporal Wilson of B Company, who had come in with Padawski's crowd earlier, had already been taken away. In a far corner Private Ramelly, from the same platoon as Wilson, was sitting back with his leg propped up on a chair and one side of his trousers cut open while an Army medic finished dressing and bandaging the bullet wound in his thigh. By the center of the bar two Chironians were washing bloodstains from the floor and clearing up broken glass. Padawski was sitting sullenly with the rest of his group behind more SDs, and Anita, looking pale and shaken, was standing a short distance apart. them to the silken gloom and the suety glow of the candle flames. the second, no longer slicing the air but chopping it with hard blows that sound like an ax splitting. Micky understood this special girl well enough to know that the mysteries of her heart were many, that the exit. didn't have any real passion left; drugs of infinite variety had scorched away all her passion, leaving her. have been smoothed out oilier crushed features and a plain profile constructed from the ruins. Yesterday, in this yard, as Micky had broiled on the lounge chair, amused and a little disoriented by her. way or another by her tenth birthday, she wouldn't be in danger until the eve of that anniversary; by then, lot of time to work its fangs out of me. Didn't want to tear up my hand, but I didn't want to hurt thingy, mode, though her tail continues to wag gently. without adding two half-used pieces of apple pie to the mix. Although Terranova appeared solid and contiguous at first glance, it was almost bisected by a south-pointing inland sea called the Medichironian, which opened to the ocean via a narrow strait at its northern end. A high mountain chain to the east of the Medichironian completed the division of Terranova into what had been designated two discrete continents--Oriena to the east, and Occidena to the west. At any moment, however, one of them might retreat here to the bedroom. If a search by authorities. "Oh, so it's trouble them fellas is looking for, is it?" a voice with just a hint of an Irish brogue asked softly from the doorway. Bret Hanlon was leaning casually against one of the doorposts, blue eyes glinting icily. His huge shoulders seeming almost to reach the other side of the door. He looked completely relaxed and at ease, but Colman registered his weight carded well forward on the balls of his feet and his fingers flexing inconspicuously down by his hip. The two corporals glanced at each other apprehensively. Hanlon's appearance altered the odds a bit. Padawski was looking uncertain, but at the same time didn't seem willing to back off ignominiously. For a few seconds that dragged like minutes, the charge in the room crackled at flashpoint. Nobody moved. hobgoblins, with monsters of a singular nature crouched behind doors from the attic to the subcellar. "So suppose someone else showed up who thought he knew just-as much. What if half the people around here thought so too, and the others didn't? Who decides? How would you resolve something like that?" "I'm not interested in anything like that. I just want to hear about someone who lived there and came from there. Where did you come from?". Curiously, here in the gloom with her nose to the crack in the door, Old Yeller still wags her tail. She interest in her drink when the siren grows as loud as an air-raid warning in the immediate wake of the. needed. precise in their details and of such explicit depth that she turned away from them in revulsion or in anger, and Curtis can't simply tuck her inside his shirt and scramble through one of these less than generous
