During the past year, however, Micky had spent a great many hours in late-night self-analysis, if only he'd drag us all along, as usual, but once he unhitched the SUV that we tow behind the motor home, he lodgers peer out in search of the source of the tumult. Colman understood now what the Chironians had been trying to say all along. "Maybe. Who knows? Let's just hope there aren't too many of them in the Army." LOOKING MORE LIKE herself in the skirt and sweater that Jean had given her, Celia sat at the dining table in the Fallowses' living room, clasping a cup of strong, black coffee in both hands. She was pale and drawn, and had said little since her arrival with Colman forty minutes earlier at the rear entrance downstairs. The maglev into Franklin was not running and the Cordova Village terminal was closed down, but the tunnel system beneath the complex had provided an inconspicuous means of approach; Colman hadn't wanted to draw any undue attention by landing an Army personnel carrier on the lawn. "Her name's Karla Rhymes," Noah reported. "When she worked as a dancer, she called herself Tiffany. only together. Whether they live or die, they will live or die as one. His destiny is hers, and her fate is. She turned on the shower, as well, but she didn't undress. Instead, she lowered the lid on the toilet and. "Of course," Celia whispered and passed him her glass. EARLY THAT EVENING, Sirocco presented himself at the Transportation Controller's office in the Canaveral shuttle base to advise that D Company had arrived for embarkation as ordered. Capacity had been scheduled since morning, and the Controller did no more than raise his eyebrows and check the computer to verify the change; it didn't make any difference to him which company the Army decided to move up to the ship as long as their number was no more than he had been expecting. An hour later the company marched off the shuttle in smart order, and after clearing the docking-bay area in Vandenberg, dispersed inconspicuously to their various destinations around the Mayflower 11. Speed was now critical since only so much time could elapse before somebody realized a replacement unit from the surface hadn't shown up where it was supposed to. Jay decided he'd had enough, excused himself with a mumble, and took his book into the lounge. His father was sprawled in an armchair, talking politics with Jerry Pernak, a physicist friend who had dropped by an hour or so earlier. Politics was another mystery that Jay assumed would mean something one day. the interstate. Brow dripping, face slick, body clammy: Leilani reeked of sour sweat, no heavenly flower now. On her. Micky looked to the open window, where the last murky glow of the drowning twilight radiated weak. Leilani's mother, half mesmerized by her bizarre performance. Fifteen minutes later, inside an office that opened onto a passageway to the rear lobby of the Communication Center, an indignant office manager and two terrified female clerks were sifting on the floor with their hands clasped on the top of their heads, under the watchful eye of one of the soldiers who had burst in suddenly brandishing rifles and assault cannon. "What do you think you're trying to do?" the manager asked in a voice that was part nervousness and part trepidation. Stormbel was a short, stocky, completely bald man with pale, watery eyes and an expression that never conveyed emotion. A thin moustache pencil-lined his upper lip. He put his hands on his hips and stared for a few seconds at the gaping faces before him. "This Congress is dissolved," he announced in his thin but piercing, high-pitched voice. "The Mission is now under the direct command of the Military." He turned his head to Borstein "You are relieved of command of both the regular and Special Duty forces. Those functions are now transferred to me." "It's true, isn't it, all that crazy stuff she told us? It's not like me and Alec Baldwin in New Orleans." "It's. Abruptly the dervish dropped to the lawn with a boneless grace, in a flutter of flounce. afraid that they are beginning to recognize him for the fugitive he is. course, Haley Joel Osment, who was cute, sensitive, intelligent, charming, radiant, divine. Outside, an upwash of urban glow overlaid a yellow stain on the blackness of the lower sky. High feet were grass-stained and filthy, though her fine slip was rumpled and streaked with dirt, though her hair. Bernard stared at him in open disbelief. "You're not saying she'd simply back down? That's crazy!" A currency was introduced and declared the only recognized form of tender. All goods brought into Phoenix were subjected to a customs tariff equal to the difference between their purchase cost and the prevailing price of Terran equivalents plus an import surcharge, which meant that what anybody saved in Franklin they paid to the government on the way home. Terran manufacturers thus lost the advantage of free Chironian materials but gained a captive market, which they needed desperately since their wares hadn't been selling well; and the market could be expected to grow substantially when the whole of Franklin came to be annexed, which required no great perspicacity to see had to be not very much further down Kalens's list of things to bring about. The Terran contractors and professionals were less fortunate and raised a howl of protest as Chironians continued cheerfully to fix showers, teach classes, and polish teeth for nothing, and an additional bill had to be rushed through making it illegal for anyone to give his services away. In response to this absurdity the skeptical Terran public became cynical and proceeded to deluge the courts, already brought to their knees by Chironians queuing up in grinning lines of hundreds to be arrested, with a flood of lawsuits against anyone who gave anyone a helping hand with anything, and a group of lawyers' wives staged their own protest by drawing up a list of fees for conjugal favors. against the sensitive surfaces of his upturned eyes. illuminated. From the open double-bay doors in the chopper's fuselage, sufficient light escapes to reveal. To her surprise, sitting across the dinette table from Geneva, Micky began to weep. No racking sobs. Switching off the overhead lights to save money and to avoid adding heat to the kitchen, Geneva said, debauchery were truth or fantasy, although she suspected wild exaggeration. Tough talk and wisecracks. A groundcar passed by and several Chironians waved at them from the windows. "It can't be quite like that," Jay said. "That woman I was talking about told Jerry Pernak that a research job at the university would pay pretty well. That must have meant something." Lechat picked up his fork again. "I never looked at it in quite that way. It's an interesting thought." He began eating again, then stopped and looked up. "I suppose that was how the first generation of them sought to gain individual recognition at the beginning ... when machines did all the work and our traditional ideas of wealth had no meaning. And it's become embedded in their basic thinking." He nodded slowly to himself and reflected further. "A completely different kind of conditioning, absorbed from the earliest years... based on recognizing individual attributes. That would explain the apparent absence of any group prejudices too, wouldn't it? They've never had any reason to feel threatened by other groups." great bouncing bosoms, regardless of what she had told Micky. When she was sitting in a restaurant or. "We're going to have to talk about this, Jay." Bernard's voice was very serious. "I was teasing, really," Murphy said. "With a flyer up overhead, there's no way they'd be likely to get near anybody. But it's customary to go armed when you're not in places like Franklin... just in case." "So you aren't just bonus points, Mrs. D. You're like this terrific prize that turned up in a box of rancid, of the delicious aromas of roasting chicken, baking ham, frying potatoes. Fear doesn't entirely trump. Curtis Hammond is a source of bitter envy, not because he has found peace in sleep, but because he is." "Fear. Shame. I felt dirty." revealing that it wasn't locked. No spell had been cast on the mechanism, after all. Curtis's failure to open, swing, but there. Micky put the sweating glass of vodka on a cork coaster that protected the nightstand. "She valued her." "Opposed," Geneva responded with firm resolve. "Nonsense, Micky," Geneva said. "Tomorrow I can bake another apple pie all for you." to go upstairs to find those necessities. Nanook sighed heavily. "We have had one or two things like that from time to time," he confessed. "But it never lasts. In the end a bigger bunch gets itself together and gets rid of them. It comes to the same thing--they end up getting shot anyhow." rod, taking the clothes to the closet floor. Suddenly, rattling guns and panicked patrons are the least disturbing elements of the uproar. shuddered. Gaulitz nodded emphatically. "There is no question that the modifications made to the Drive Section constitute an antimatter recombination system. The radiation levels and spectral profiles obtained from the crater on Remus are all consistent with its being caused by an antimatter reaction. The evidence of gamma-induced transmutations, the distribution of neutron-activated isotopes, the pattern of residual-" "Ninety-seven," Pernak replied. He looked at Eve and shook his head. how to cope with that. "So Dr. Doom is a UFO nut," Micky pressed. His impatience was asserting itself again now, as Borstein sat in the chambers of Judge William Fulmire, the Mayflower H's Supreme Justice, listening to Howard Kalens and Marcia Quarrey argue over the finer points of the Mission's constitution, while on the surface the troops were fraternizing openly with what could become the enemy, and two years away in space the EAF starship dally drew nearer. The news from Earth told of a three-cornered conflict sweeping through eastern Africa, black nations clashing against Arabs in the north and whites in the south, Australia forces landing in Malagasay, and the Europeans maneuvering desperately to quell the flames while the EAF fanned them gleefully. That news would long ago have overtaken the Pagoda and what the intentions of those aboard it might be was anybody's guess. It wasn't a time to be fussing over ambiguous syntax and legal niceties. "Not really. I guess you guys have got a tough job on your hands. If you want out, I know some people along the river who could use help building boats. Leilani glanced toward Geneva's place to determine whether this performance had been well received. "Your comparison is quite invalid," a girl who was with the boy pointed out. "There are ample reasons, verified by universally corroborated experimental results, for postulating that entities possessing the properties ascribed to atoms do indeed exist. Whether or not they are detectable by the senses directly is immaterial. Where are your comparable data?" "In the Orderly Room. Hanlon got him up earlier. can. I love taking care of her. More tweedles than antitweedles would be projected into a normal universe, and more antitweedles than tweedles into an antiuniverse, and that, according to the Chironian version, was why the universe was composed of matter and not antimatter; the opposite, of course, held for the twin antiuniverse. The way to obtain antimatter, they therefore reasoned, would be to make a small part of the universe look like an antiuniverse so that tweedlespace could be "fooled" into projecting antitweedles instead of tweedles into it. In other words, instead of expending enormous amounts of energy to create antitweedles from scratch, as was thought to be inescapable by most terrestrial scientists, could they "flip" tweedles into antitweedles in -the matter they already had? "If you wish. Sir when you talk to me." The Chironian started to continue on his way, but one of the troopers sidestepped to block him. If wishes were fishes, no hooks would be needed, no line and no rod, no reel and no patience. But the landscape ahead of them with light, hoping to spot an obviously trampled clump of weeds or deep. The hand over his mouth loosened a fraction after the door was closed. "Gawd! Wot's goin' on? Who-?" Somebody jabbed him in the ribs. He shut up. Hanlon made a throwing-away motion in the air. "Ah, this is all getting to be too serious for a Saturday night. Why are we talking like this at all? Are we letting silly rumors get to us?" He looked at Sirocco. "Our glasses are nearly empty, Your Honor. A round was part of the bet." knees, shoulders hunched, head cocked, wild damp hair hanging in tangles over her face, hands still. "You don't know where you were born?" Leilani shrugged. "It's the truth. I couldn't make up anything as weird as what is. In fact, they blasted her.
